

Floating through space on a winding sax line, using the planets as tom-toms and scratching the rings of Saturn like vinyl, Karl Denson's Tiny Universe reaches outside the atmosphere of jazz with furious dance-based, acid-jazz styles and just enough funk to liven up the entire family. Also: Troy Andrews, DJ Vikter Duplaix. Central Park, SummerStage, at 3 p.m. (Marek)
