
best place to find slightly used expensive furniture in the dumpster

It's amazing to see the amount of waste New Yorkers produce, but when rich art students throw something away, you might want to check twice to see if it's really junk. With mom and dad's steady pizza fund and a pretty good sense of style, PRATT INSTITUTE students tend to discard some of the nicest garbage. You might find the perfect addition to your pad in one of the dumpsters at semester's end: from a leather couch to a teardrop glass table or an antique pin-up girl lamp. Between Classon Avenue and Hall Street on Willoughby Avenue, Brooklyn, 718-636-3600 DM
